

Afcons MD appointed as chairman of Project Export Promotion Council

S Paramasivan will serve as the chairman for a term of two years.

E ET Infra Desk • ETInfra
Updated On Mar 25, 2025 at 06:22 PM IST

Afcons Infrastructure, an engineering and construction company of the Shapoorji Pallonji Group, announced that its managing director, S Paramasivan, has assumed the role of the chairman of the Project Export Promotion Council (PEPC). Paramasivan will serve as the chairman for a term of two years.

Prior to his appointment as chairman, he held the position of vice-chairman of the PEPC from 2023 to 2025.

The PEPC operates as the apex coordinating agency for Indian project exporters, facilitating their efforts to secure and execute projects overseas. The council plays a crucial role in promoting Indian project exports by undertaking various initiatives and providing essential technical information, guidance, and support. It adheres to the guidelines set by the Reserve Bank of India for undertaking overseas projects.

Advt

“This is a significant opportunity to contribute towards the growth of Indian project exports. I look forward to working closely with all stakeholders to strengthen our position in the global market,” said S Paramasivan, managing director, Afcons Infrastructure.

Published On Mar 25, 2025 at 06:22 PM IST

MOST READ IN URBAN INFRASTRUCTURE